

NRSHA
NATIONAL RANCH AND
STOCK HORSE ALLIANCE

ALLIANCE MEMBERSHIP APPLICATION

The National Ranch and Stock Horse Alliance (NRSHA) was founded by six partnering associations in an effort to work together with like-minded ranch and stock horse groups across the country. NRSHA was developed to preserve and promote ranching traditions and heritage through competitive ranch and stock horse events on a national level.

Basic requirements for organizations :

Breed associations, please contact NRSHA via email at info@ranchhorse.net for information on joining.

- Be registered with the IRS as a non-profit or not-for-profit
- Have at least 100 annual paid members
- Shows must include at least 1 cattle class at all shows, as well as stock/ranch reining, stock/ranch pleasure or ranch riding, and stock/ranch trail
- Use a 70-based scoring system
- Hold at least 3 separate shows in a single calendar year with the required events, track year end points, and give year end recognition/awards
- Adhere to the mission and philosophy of the alliance

Geographical limitations:

Prospective alliance members can not offer events that geographically overlap (same state/region/area) with an existing NRSHA member. Applicants that offer events in competition with existing alliance members will not be considered.

Fees associated with membership within the Alliance

Each Alliance Member shall contribute to NRSHA an initial membership fee of $1,000 and an annual fee of $500 thereafter.

Completed applications can be emailed to info@ranchhorse.net or mailed to:
